2. Take appropriate steps to ensure the effective use of such assistance;

3.  - (b) inspect and audit any records and accounts with respect to funds provided, and to any properties or contract services procured through financing by the Government of the United States for purposes of this Agreement; and
6. Bear a fair share of the costs of cooperative technical assistance programs under this Agreement and, to the maximum extent possible, seek full coordination and integration of technical cooperation programs being carried on in the Republic of South Sudan and also cooperate with other nations participating in such programs in the mutual exchange of technical knowledge and skills.

ARTICLE 3 SPECIAL ACCOUNT

1. In any case where commodities or services are furnished on a grant basis under arrangements which result in the accrual of local currency proceeds to the Government of South Sudan from the import or sale of such commodities or services, the Government of South Sudan, except as may otherwise be mutually agreed upon by the representatives referred to in Article I hereof, will establish, in its own name, a special interest-bearing account in a commercial bank in the Republic of South Sudan, and deposit promptly in such special account the amount of local currency equivalent to such proceeds.

2. Upon notification from time to time by the Government of the United States of its local currency requirements, the Government of South Sudan will make available to the Government of the United States, in the manner requested by that Government, out of any balance in the special account, such sums as are stated in such notifications to be necessary for such requirements.
3. The Government of South Sudan may draw upon any remaining balances in the special account for such purposes beneficial to the Republic of South Sudan as may be agreed upon from time to time by the representatives referred to in Article 1 of this Agreement.

4. The Government of South Sudan agrees to issue, renew and/or extend free of charge and in a timely manner all official permits, visas, exemptions and any other permissions (including all approvals as may be required from time to time to ensure full access to information, project sites and relevant offices) for (1) the Applicable Persons (as defined below) carrying out programs, projects, or activities funded under any assistance provided in connection with this Agreement (collectively, the "Required Documents") and (2) family members forming part of the households of Applicable Persons. For purposes of this provision, Applicable Persons is defined as: all personnel, except citizens and permanent residents of the Republic of South Sudan, who the Government of the United States, or any agency thereof, employs (whether by direct hire, contract or other arrangement) or finances (whether by contract, grant or otherwise with any person or entity, including employees and consultants of contractors, grantees, and other organizations carrying out activities financed under this Agreement) and who are present in the Republic of South Sudan to perform work in connection with this Agreement. Applicable Persons will be exempt from any medical testing generally required by the Government of South Sudan for the issuance of work permits and/or visas.
5. The Government of South Sudan agrees to issue, renew and/or extend free of charge and in a timely manner any other documentation necessary to facilitate the implementation of programs, projects, or activities funded under any assistance provided in connection with this Agreement, including, but not limited to, all documentation needed for registration of non-governmental organizations under the laws of the Republic of South Sudan.

6. The provisions of this Article 6 will apply also to assistance, funded by the Government of the United States of America, occurring in or transiting through the Republic of South Sudan intended to assist regional organizations or activities in the region.

ARTICLE 7 INFORMATION AND PUBLICITY

1. The Government of South Sudan will communicate to the Government of the United States in a form and at intervals to be mutually agreed upon, including communicating about:

 - (b) technical assistance which has been or is being requested of other countries or international organizations.
2. Not less frequently than once a year, the Parties will, in mutual consultation, make public in their respective countries periodic reports of the programs carried on pursuant to this Agreement. Such reports shall include information as to the use of funds, materials, equipment and services.

1. Funds introduced into the Republic of South Sudan for purposes of furnishing assistance hereunder shall be convertible into the currency of the Republic of South Sudan at the legal rate of exchange most favorable to the Government of the United States at the time of conversion.
2. Both Parties will establish a procedure whereby funds allocated to or derived from any program or project assistance hereunder shall not be subject to any form of legal process, including but not limited to, attachment or seizure by any person or juridical entity, when the Government of South Sudan is advised by the Government of the United States that such legal process would interfere with the attainment of the objectives of any program or project assistance hereunder.

ARTICLE 9 SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

1. In addition to the provisions of any arrangements agreed upon pursuant to Article 1, all or any part of any assistance program or project provided hereunder may be terminated or suspended by either of the Parties upon written notice to the other Party. Termination of such assistance under this paragraph may include the termination of deliveries of any commodities hereunder not yet delivered; provided, however, that termination or suspension of such assistance hereunder shall not affect irrevocable commitments to third parties.
2. This Agreement may be terminated 120 days after the receipt by either Party of a written termination notice from the other Party. Notwithstanding such termination, the provisions hereof shall remain in force with respect to assistance initiated before the termination.

ARTICLE 10 SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

The two Parties shall strive to resolve amicably, under mutually agreed upon procedures, any differences relating to or arising out of the interpretation and execution of this Agreement or any specific program or project arrangement hereunder.

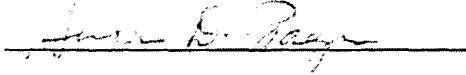

ARTICLE 11 ENTRY INTO FORCE

This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature by authorized representatives of both Parties and shall remain in force until terminated by either Party in accordance with Article 9, paragraph 2. As between the Parties, this Agreement supersedes the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of the Sudan providing for economic, technical and related assistance to the Sudan, effected by exchange of notes at Khartoum on March 31, 1958.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement at Juba, South Sudan, in duplicate, this 11th day of September, 2012, in the English language.
