<sup>2</sup> The instrument of acceptance of the Further Additional Protocol by Finland includes the following declaration: "The Government of the Republic of Finland refer to the declaration deposited at the time of ratification by Finland of the Agreement among the States Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty and the Other States Participating in the Partnership for Peace, stating that the acceptance of the jurisdiction by military authorities of a sending state in accordance with Article VII of the Agreement between the Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty regarding the Status of Their Forces by Finland does not apply to the exercise, on the territory of Finland, of the jurisdiction by courts of a sending state."

<sup>4</sup> Signature of the Further Additional Protocol by Sweden includes the following reservation: "The Government of Sweden does not consider itself bound by Article I of the Agreement among the States Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty and the other States Participating in the Partnership for Peace Regarding the Status of their Forces, to the extent that this Article refers to the provisions of Article VII of the Agreement between the Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty Regarding the Status of their Forces, which gives sending States the right to exercise jurisdiction within the territory of a receiving State, when Sweden is such a receiving State. The reservation does not cover
