NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Pursuant to Public Law 89—497, approved July 8, 1966
(80 Stat. 271; 1 U.S.C. 113)—

“ . . .the Treaties and Other International Acts Series issued under the authority of the Secretary of State shall be competent evidence . . . of the treaties, international agreements other than treaties, and proclamations by the President of such treaties and international agreements other than treaties, as the case may be, therein contained, in all the courts of law and equity and of maritime jurisdiction, and in all the tribunals and public offices of the United States, and of the several States, without any further proof or authentication thereof.”

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20508

December 8th, 2022

Ms. Rachel Hirshler
Deputy Director
Foreign Trade Administration
Ministry of Economy and Industry
5 Bank Israel Street
Jerusalem, Israel 9103101

Dear Ms. Hirshler:

On July 27, 2004, the Government of the United States of America (United States) and the Government of Israel (Israel) entered into an agreement concerning certain aspects of trade in agricultural products (Agreement), effective from January 1, 2004, through December 31, 2008. The United States and Israel have extended the Agreement through December 31, 2022. Pursuant to the Agreement, our Governments continue to review the operation of the Agreement and seek ways to make further improvements.

In order to allow more time for this review, I have the honor to confirm the following understanding between our Governments that, effective as of this date:

1. The Agreement, its annexes, and attachments, with modifications as noted in this letter, shall remain in force through December 31, 2023.
2. For 2023, Israel shall maintain, for each product listed in Annex B of the Agreement, the quantities for duty-free import into Israel from the United States at the 2008 levels specified for each product in that Annex.
3. For 2023, Israel shall maintain, for imports from the United States subject to Annex C of the Agreement, the 2008 preference levels specified for each product in that Annex.
4. For 2023, the United States shall maintain, for each product listed in Annex D of the Agreement, the quantities for duty-free import into the United States from Israel at the 2008 levels specified for each product in that Annex.
5. The United States and Israel shall continue their review of the operation of the Agreement with a view to reaching a new agreement on trade in agricultural products to enter into force at the earliest practicable date.

Sincerely,

Dr. Julie Callahan
Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Agricultural Affairs and Commodity Policy

Dear Dr. Callahan:

On July 27, 2004, the Government of the United States of America (United States) and the Government of Israel (Israel) entered into an agreement concerning certain aspects of trade in agricultural products (Agreement), effective from January 1, 2004, through December 31, 2008. The United States and Israel have extended the Agreement through December 31, 2022. Pursuant to the Agreement, our Governments continue to review the operation of the Agreement and seek ways to make further improvements.

In order to allow more time for this review, I have the honor to confirm the following understanding between our Governments that, effective as of this date:

1. The Agreement, its annexes, and attachments, with modifications as noted in this letter, will remain in force through December 31, 2023.
2. For 2023, Israel will maintain, for each product listed in Annex B of the Agreement, the quantities for duty-free import into Israel from the United States at the 2008 levels specified for each product in that Annex.
3. For 2023, Israel will maintain, for imports from the United States subject to Annex C of the Agreement, the 2008 preference levels specified for each product in that Annex.
4. For 2023, the United States will maintain, for each product listed in Annex D of the Agreement, the quantities for duty-free import into the United States from Israel at the 2008 levels specified for each product in that Annex.
5. The United States and Israel will continue their review of the operation of the Agreement with a view to reaching a new agreement on trade in agricultural products to enter into force at the earliest practicable date.

Sincerely,

Rachel Hirshler
